Wanted to make some changes to this page
it seemed to be a little bit boring
and I thought it wasn't very interesting
so I decided to make it a little more interesting

...THAT
"FEELINGS"
BECOME THE SOUL OF THE WORK.

A black and white manga panel featuring a close-up of a character with dark, layered hair and a serious expression. A large speech bubble on the left contains the text. The character's face is partially visible on the right side of the panel.

AN UNEXPECTED AND FACIAL EXPRESSION...
WHAT HAPPENED TO KUREMI?

Translation Notice:

One may conclude that Hikari wasn't raped because no rape scene was shown and because Houjou came to rescue her.

Unfortunately, there are many indications in the manga that suggest this is not the case:

1- It takes a long time to travel in a big city like Tokyo by a taxi, so Houjou couldn't have come in time to rescue Hikari.

2- The name of the dog in Hikari's manga is Hana, and it means flower. In Japanese, they usually refers to vagina by the word flower when they don't want to say the word explicitly. Since the dog was shown covered in blood and dead, one can't help but conclude that Hikari is indirectly telling the world that she was raped.

3- The protagonist in the manga said "I can't forgive the ones who took away my most precious thing," to one of the girls that bullied her. It's not very difficult to guess that this line is Hikari's message towards Karen and others in Seena's house who are responsible for her rape.
